Q-Mesh

Extraordinary comfort redefined

A

Headrest with height adjustment and positioning knob control for better neck support.

B

The lumbar support can be adjusted back-forth and up-down.

C

Armrest is adjustable to suit user's comfortable height by pressing the button control.

D

Ergonomic seat height and tension adjustment control allows user to adjust to a comfortable position. It also has a built-in tilt lock mechanism which allows user to lock backrest at a pre-determined angle.

E

Backrest uses high tenacious mesh material that provides better air circulation, support and comfort.
